EE-I DAILY PROGRESS REPORT, THURSDAY, 15 NOVEMBER 1951

EGFIEND

[] EGFIEND liaison officer with the NCFA in Rome, has provided us with details of the celebration for the Albanian National Independence Day on November 28. It is planned to distribute the first issue of the NCFA bulletin at ^{THE} reception. The bulletin will contain a summary of overt NCFA activities and a statement of its aims. The clandestine radio station in Athens will also complement the Rome celebration by scheduling several programs commemorating Independence Day. [] reports the British plan to mark the event by dispatching messages of congratulations to the committee from Churchill and Eden and has requested that Truman and Acheson send similar messages. This matter is under discussion in Washington now.
